Tameside, Oldham and Glossop Mind are looking for passionate, motivated and reliable individuals to be the face of the organisation and represent the charity at a wide variety of events throughout the year. - Enthusiasm and positivity in order to represent TOG Mind at a variety of events
- Great team work skills and a proactive nature in order to organize event materials, what events to attend and how to evaluate the overall fundraising impact
- Strong organization skills to registering event attendees and collect supporter information in line with procedure
- Reliable, good at time keeping and the ability to take responsibility for tasks
- Ability to adhere to all policies, in particular confidentiality, data protection and health and safety

The Benefits of volunteering with TOG Mind

1. Full training and ongoing support such as group supervision
2. Access to our internal Continual Professional Development (training) programme
3. Volunteer in a 4 hour block and receive a free lunch at one of our Café's
4. Full remuneration for any travel expenses incurred
5. Experience of working in a wellbeing organization
6. Full references for any future job or volunteer role
7. Hot and cold beverages and biscuits throughout your time with us

Volunteers are a central part of our organisation which means where and when we can invest in volunteers, we do so. Recently we have placed a few volunteers on our Community Mental Health Course Level 2, and before that we supported a group of volunteers to become trained Mindfulness Practitioners. Though we can't routinely offer this training to our volunteers, this is something we strive to do as an organisation.

Over 50% of our staff started off working for Tameside Oldham and Glossop Mind as a volunteer, where possible we aim to recruit from our volunteer pool. Any seasonal work or paid roles are usually advertised internally first giving our volunteers an opportunity to apply for a paid role.

If you are interested in supporting Tameside Oldham & Glossop Mind please either apply via our website at www.togmind.org or email HR@togmind.org for more information.

We look forward to meeting you soon.
